Housing, Roads, Water Control As Related To New Industries Discussed By RDB Committee

The Glades Committee of the Palm Beach County Resources Development Board at its meeting Friday night at the Chamber of Commerce Building in Pahokee, discussed the possible sites for a proposed factory in the Glades, and the prospects of other small industries for the area.

Among the immediate items necessary in preparation for the effective selling of the Glades, as discussed by this group are: (1) the building of a road south from the Pratt Whitney plant to the intersect State Road No. 80; (2) the relief of the acute housing shortage now existing, and the necessity for housing for any possible new industry; (3) a survey in conjunction with the Florida Employment Service as to the number of folks employed for how long and in what type of jobs during 1956, as well as the availability of semi- and skilled workers. The County is asked by resolution to take some definite action on the road and other Glades organizations are asked to join in the effort. Our Washington delegation is complimented by the group for the effectiveness of the campaign in the recent past. The Vacuum Cooling unit are welcomed to a new industry, and Bill Pierce Associates are congratulated on their effective work in ramie. Recognition was given the Belle Glade Chamber of Commerce and the program at the annual dinner.

Changing Economy Demands Changed School Approach

The laws of the State of Florida give the State Board of Education prerogatives over the nine of the eighteen credit necessary for any graduate of a high school, according to School Board Chairman Earl W. Earwood.

"We are a bit late now," he continued, "I believe, in recognizing that the curricula of high schools should reflect the changing economic conditions of our state, and I have, therefore, suggested to the Executive Committee of the State Association of School Boards, that authorities on our largest industrial newsmen be invited to lead a panel to discuss remedial action on this score."

Mr. Earwood reports that the Committee agreed and this subject will be one of the most important discussed at the annual meeting in Tampa next month.

Rotary Exchange Student Praises Uruguayans For Democratic Ideals

"Uruguay, a complete democracy, with 2,000,000 inhabitants has three cows and nine sheep for each inhabitant and finds more than 1,000,000 of its inhabitants living in cities under a social welfare state." Owen Freed told Rotarians Friday. He is a graduate of Miami High, a student and teacher at the University of Miami, was sponsored by the Rotary District as a Rotary Fellow student and attended the University of Motovide, Uruguay for a year studying history and international law.

The economy of Uruguay is strictly cash and wool, with about one third of the population having government jobs or subsidies. The intricate plans of social welfare calls for the farmer to benefit in purchasing his machinery at one half cost, while the city dweller must pay three times the cost of an auto-

Better Road Signs Hung In Belle Glade

President Russell Tucker appealed to Mr. Pappy of the State Road Department to place easily read signs at the intersection of Main Street and Avenue A for the benefit of through traffic.

It has been the practice of a great majority of western bound motorists on Avenue A to continue down Avenue A to Royals before finding out that they should have turned south at the intersection.

Now, Mr. Pappy has erected signs plainly marking the route of State Road No. 80 south, and Mrs. Edwina Young is as much relieved as are the merchants on West Avenue A.

Thanks, Mr. Pappy from Russ Tucker, Edwina Young and a host of Belle Glade citizens, not to mention the formerly inconvenienced tourists.

Junior College For Negroes Is To Be Discussed

County School Board Chairman Henry Earwood, Howell Watkins, County Superintendent, and President John Leavelle, and of the PB County College, have just returned from attendance on a conference called by Dr. Doak Campbell on Junior Colleges.

The last Legislature provided for a state-wide Committee to study Junior Colleges, headed by Dr. James Watenburger on loan from the U of F. It was developed that from fourteen areas in the State are being considered for Junior College services and it is very probable that this Committee will recommend some five or more sites for junior colleges to the April Legislature. The last legislature provided funds for the four existing institutions.

On the agenda for discussion at the next meeting of the County School Board is that of the possibilities and probabilities of establishing a junior college for negroes in this county.

Springtime Brings Glades Cattlemen Renewed Activity

What with rodeos here, cattle exhibits at Tampa, cattle shows at Kissimmee and general activity throughout Florida on cattle, Glades cattleman find that the past two weeks has brought a general "up" on most grades. It is reported that there is a strong demand for more stockers than are available.

Records show that the local market provided 10,000 stockers to Glades cattleman during March, April and May of '56, and that an additional 15,000 were brought in at increased expense and time.

There will be a breeders and herdsman short course at Gainesville April 11-13 when cattle grades will be a feature. The Everglades Experiment Station will hold its "Annual Field Day" on March 21.

Local Merchants Plan Ambitious "Trade At Home" Sales Campaign

Displaying an acute appreciation of the "dollars that go away from home", and backed by the firm conviction that "you can get it in Belle Glade" at the same or less price, some twenty-odd local merchants united as the Merchants Division of the local Chamber of Commerce have laid the foundation for a six weeks demonstration of just what they have to offer.

A community consciousness in civic betterment — roads, schools, churches, parks, water, sewerage and libraries — as emphasized by Mr. Roelke of Pratt Whitney just a week ago, engaged the group Monday night equally with plans to prove to Glades folks that they are just as well "trade at home" for comfort, convenience and economy. Following the decision that the first week in April will be the final of the six-week campaign, the group adopted the overall plan suggested by it, and will commence its advertising campaign with in a couple of weeks. Well laid plans, based on experienced sales psychology, with the fundamental idea of bargains and actual comparative prices with out-of-town purchases, will be followed. Gimicks and catch phrases, prizes of cash and merchandise will be given to the holders of lucky numbers received through local purchases. Your local merchants are a substantial part of your community in service and in contribution to its growth and welfare; they are inviting local folks to "give them an overview" seriously in their effort to "build a better Belle Glade."

"There is no reported case of paralytic polio in persons who have taken the full course of vaccine," the doctors tell us, and they know.

Baptism Explained by Father Petrie

"The Sacraments of Old Testament foreshadowed those of the New," said Father John Clarence Petrie last Sunday in his sermon on Baptism at the Episcopal church in Clewiston and Belle Glade. But they were signs rather than means of grace the priest continued. Divine grace became possible only with the life and death of Christ who endowed material things like water, oil, and wine with the power to confer grace. In Baptism one enters into supernatural life, all his past sins whether he inherited sin of Adam or sins committed knowingly and willingly are forgiven, he enters into the Church and is therefore a member of Christ, and he bears forever after a mark or character.

The Sacraments are not magic, Fr. Petrie warned. To confer grace upon us they require our cooperation. Mortal sin prevents the Sacrament from conferring grace and as in the case of a bad Communion incurs the guilt of sacrilege.

The series continues next Sunday with the Sacrament of Confirmation as the subject.

proposed sewerage system. This is a "must" if Belle Glade is to attract new residents and new industry.

QUESTIONS FOR THE WEEK
... Did you know that just a small epidemic of the common dysentery could stop all vegetable harvest and shipment in this area for an indefinite period?
And did you know that this disease epidemic usually strikes areas where a sewerage system does not exist? And did you know one such epidemic could then cost you and your city more than the cost of a better sewerage system?

Jet Airport Plans Nearing Completion

A decision to speed up plans for a new Palm Beach county jet airport was voted by the county commission this week following a conference with Aeronautics Administration engineers in Miami.

The commission, for several months, has been working on plans for a new airport west of West Palm Beach which will be designed to handle jet plane traffic; serve as a home industrial area and house military operations.

Last week, revised plans for the airport drawn by County Engineer Steve Middleton and his staff, were given a favorable reply by the CAA district engineers with a promise that the plans will be started through CAA channels for final approval.

The commission voted to speed up plans in order to take advantage of federal aid which will be used to help finance purchase of land needed for the port. It is hoped that necessary land can be purchased this year.
Commission Chairman Kenneth
Foster said:

Middleton, in a report to the commission, said the CAA is sending an engineer here this week to make an on-the-spot inspection of the proposed location of the port. A definite location cannot be pinpointed, the engineer said. The CAA approval has been given to proposed plans.

In reviewing the growth of industry in Palm Beach county, Middleton told the commission that since 1948 rate of traffic increase here has been 100 per cent above the national average.
In 1948 he said, 15,561 passengers boarded planes here; in 1956 the total was 74,764. By 1960, CAA estimates that passenger totals will reach 186,000 and cargo, 226,000 tons.

Commissioner Foster said the board is proud of Middleton and his engineering staff which has been controlled by the CAA for the manner in which airport plans have been drafted and presented.

ting off—while they keep put-

Rams Lose Big One To Lake Worth, 65 - 61

Belle Glade dropped a very crucial basketball game to the Lake Worth Trojans last Friday night by the score of 65 to 61. Going into this contest the Rams had only lost one Conference game on two occasions and had an excellent chance of finishing on or near the top of the heap. As it stands now the Rams will have to win their remaining games to finish any better than third place.

The Trojans got off to an extremely fast start and left the court at half-time with a twelve point lead. The Rams bounced back in the second half however, and in the last quarter closed the gap to 61 to 60 with less than two minutes to play.
But the pressure was too great and the pace too hot, they could not up-bid up their two point lead while the Trojans grabbed four.

Rams Defeat League Leading Pompano 65 - 59

The Belle Glade Rams, exhibiting their best brand of basketball to date and showing a remarkable ability to bounce back after a heartbreaking defeat, overcame a fine team from Pompano Tuesday night, 65 to 59.

No one gave the Rams even an outside chance to stifle the Golden Tornadoes and, as was expected, the Rams were out-righted in a quick lead scoring the first quarter to 17 for the Rams. With a lightning like response, the Trojans took the lead Rams overcame an eleven point deficit to take a 47 to 43 lead.
Pompano regained a two point lead midway in the fourth period, but the determined Rams single carried them to victory by a margin of 65 to 59.

Brownman Crampton graced in 21 points to lead in individual scoring. The Rams were able to beat the front line switching in 25 free throws to their opponents 11. Frey Norris did yeoman work in Capturing rebounds off of both backboards.

Belle Glade vs. Pahokee

The Belle Glade Rams are about to face an important game in the Suncoast Conference basketball race which is rapidly developing into one of the most exciting of recent years. A win will keep the Rams in the running for Conference honors, whereas a loss will leave them in danger of death to their chances.

The Blue Devils, after a long dry spell, have won their next winning three games in a row against good competition.
The Rams, having been recently defeated in some of their pressurized basketball contests, might be ripe for an upset, especially in the "cramped quarters of Pahokee's "match box" type gym. The Blue Devils, having everything to win and a great deal to lose, are probably upset minded.

Midjet Basketball

Belle Glade's Midjet League will close its season next Wednesday afternoon with a four-game tournament. The standings of the four team league are:

Yellow Jackets	W	4	1
Green Gremlins	L	3	2
Red Devils	L	3	3
Blue Stripes	L	4	4

Washington Report

By SENATOR SPESARD HOLLAND

This is the first issue of my bi-weekly "Report from Washington" which I hope you will find interesting. In this and later issues I intend to report as factually and concisely as possible on legislative and other governmental activities, and to discuss proposals that arise in the conduct of our Nation's affairs, with particular emphasis on matters of direct concern to the people of Florida. The reports will also mention my own activities as well as the activities of my office in incident to serve you.

Your Comment Is Invited
I am probably the only Senator in the country who has been incited to serve you. In the reports I may take positions that do not coincide with your own views. When you are thinking on any matter before the Congress, please let me hear from you. Your comments will be welcome. I invite constructive suggestions or criticism to be sent to me at any time. For many times, for the expressions of citizens on a given subject are helpful in reaching a decision of my own course of action.

Decks Cleared For Action!
Prior to the colorful inauguration of President Eisenhower on January 21 the Senate was organized by our scant Democratic majority of one. In Congress the President outlined his "doctrine" or plan to meet the Middle East crisis, then expressed his confidence in the message which was closely followed by the National Budget for the next fiscal year beginning July 1.

Liberals Try Rules Change
The opening days of a session of Congress are usually attracted by a certain amount of buckling and filling, but that was held to a minimum this time by a group of ultra-liberal Senators to change the Senate rule on debate so that a prescribed time for a simple majority of those present and voting could shut it off. I stoutly opposed the move because I felt, as did the Senate by a vote of 53 to 38, that to rewrite the rules at the beginning of each session without reference to the Committee, and at the whim of a simple majority, would go far to destroy the stability of the Senate.

One of the first official duties of Congress was to canvass the vote of the Electoral College to determine who was elected President of the United States for the next four years. In the case of the late President Eisenhower, the vote was 457 to 7 for the Republican ticket of Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon.

Service on the Agriculture and Forestry Committee gives portant to our economy. I am on Agricultural Financing and Steering Committee which assigns Senators to Committees.

State Treasurer Larson Holds Insurance Clinic In WP Beach On Feb. 14th

A series of eight meetings have been scheduled throughout the state between February 13 and 28 for the purpose of public discussion of a proposed program of legislation affecting the state insurance laws.

J. Edwin Larson, State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner, said he wants everyone who is interested to have an opportunity to review his proposed legislation program before presenting it to the 1957 session of the State Legislature.

He said Florida is already a leader among the states in good insurance legislation, but it needs constant revision in order to stay abreast of the growth of this large industry.

Larson said he is particularly interested in strengthening the financial structure of newly formed companies for the benefit of policyholders and the industry alike. He said he wants a solid foundation of insurance laws adopted this time and a re-writing of the insurance laws in 1959 to weed out duplications.

All eight of the upcoming public hearings will follow a similar schedule beginning at 9:30 a. m. and running until noon and from 1 p. m. to 3 p. m. Fire and Casualty legislation will be the morning topic and Life and Accident & Health will be discussed in the afternoon.

The meeting will be conducted at the Hotel Pennsylvania in West Palm Beach.

The mission study book entitled, "Youth in a Responsible Society", under the capable leadership of Mrs. H. E. Garrett and Mrs. C. A. Thompson, was given.

Rev. H. E. Garrett opened the meeting with the devotion. He gave a very interesting talk on "Prayer".

The study book was a Symposium written in six chapters, each one by an outstanding authority in their field. Dorothy McConnell, Editor of the "World Outlook", an outstanding magazine published by the Methodist Church, was one of the authors.

Each of these six chapters were very forcefully presented to the group by the following members:

One phase of the study on youth problems was presented in the form of a pageant by some of the younger members under the able direction of Mrs. Clarence Kidder.

After the study course a lovely luncheon was served by the committee under the Chairmanship of Mrs. D. C. DeHaven and Mrs. George Farnall as Co-chairmen. The tables were attractively decorated with hibiscus and a clever center piece made from a green plant with small marshmallows and dentine chewing gum hanging from the branches.

Elizabeth Winslow In Festival Symphonette
At Clewiston Feb. 11

The Festival Symphonette, a unique musical organization, will be the next attraction scheduled to appear this year in Clewiston under the auspices of the Everglades Mutual Concert Association. The concert, which will take place in the Sugarland auditorium on February 11, is expected to be one of the finest events of the local music season.

Composed of some of the finest instrumentalists from America's greatest symphony orchestras, the Festival Symphonette will also feature four soloists — soprano, baritone, harp, and violin. Robert Rudie, conductor and violin soloist, is recognized as one of this country's most illustrious musicians, both in the U. S. and in Europe, both as conductor and violinist. In addition, he has a fine stage personality which will be utilized in introducing each soloist to the audience.

Elizabeth Winslow, gifted young lyric soprano, has been soloist with the Collegiate Choral under Robert Shaw, and was soloist with the Robert Shaw Choral on their national tour in 1954-55. She has also toured with the respected Charles Gilchrist and Sullivan Company, and has appeared as soloist at the Brevard Music Festival.

Cynthia Otis, young and brilliant harpist, has appeared with a number of symphony orchestras, and has concertized in at least half the U. S. and also in Latin America. As a member of the Harp Trio, Miss Otis has demonstrated her great talent in several extensive tours. She will not only perform solos with the Festival Symphonette, but will also play with the ensemble.

A prize-winning baritone, Howard Shaw has appeared extensively in concert, oratorio, radio, and television throughout most of our country. He was acclaimed a national of the highest rank in winning the 1954 New York Singing Teachers Association Contest. His recent Town Hall debut was a triumphant success.

Volunteer Fire Depts. Seeking County Aid

A further example of the continuing trend to centralized government is the idea being pursued by rural communities of the county to secure County financial aid in maintaining fire departments.

The communities need financial aid in inspecting and to whatever source be available, BUT do they consider where this is leading - "the man that pays the bill tells you what to do" - and that is in Washington and by bureaucrats.

Volunteer fire departments of Military Trail, Southwest Military Trail and Trail Park are seeking County aid for help. We believe the county should help, but go easy on that Washington stuff.

Roberts Proposes Aid In Financing Housing

Solution of peak period labor housing shortage for Florida agricultural workers reached top consideration at a Working Conference Friday in Orlando which drew together the states agricultural interests with Congressmen A. S. (Syd) Herling, Jr. All agreed this was the Number One problem facing Florida agriculture from the labor standpoint.

Congressman Herling explained details of H. R. 221, which he has introduced in Congress. The bill would allow for a rapid write off of expenditures for construction of facilities for farm labor housing. The meeting expressed an enthusiastic support of the bill.

Rudolph Mottson, Fort Pierce, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association which sponsored the meeting, introduced Amet Duda, Jr., Oviedo, who set forth the purpose of the meeting and introduced Emmet A. Roberts, Belle Glade, State Representative from Palm Beach County and chairman of the Florida Citizens Committee for Migratory Labor.

"Housing is the number one problem in dealing with migratory labor," said Roberts. "And one of the difficulties is that farmers cannot secure adequate financing for this type of housing." He went on to say that large camps were not the answer but that small and medium size housing projects for this purpose appeared to be the answer. He recommended some type of financing for this purpose be arranged for the farmer.

James T. Vocelle, chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, expressed the interest of his commission in this problem which they recognized as a major one for Florida agriculture. He told of the increase in industry in Florida and expressed the belief that farm labor would become even more scarce in the future and the housing of migrant workers more important.

In introducing Congressman Herling, Vocelle praised him for his record as an effective legislator with the interests of Florida and the nation at heart.

REHEARSALS STARTED (Continued from Page One) on casting the show. Much enthusiasm was shown when the various scenes of the show were described. Casting and organization of the show, including the musical numbers will be completed this evening at 7:30 and rehearsals of dances, and musical numbers will be started.

Lorenzo Connell, Chairman of the Talent Committee, said that the director desires a larger cast than last year and that there is plenty of room for friends of the Lions Club who would enjoy participating in circus singing, comedy scenes or dance groups. Volunteers are asked to appear at the Elementary School Gymnasium at 7:30 tonight.

Proceeds of the show will be devoted to the sight conserving work done by the Lions Club. Tickets are now on sale for the two performances which will be held on Friday and Saturday nights, February 14 and 15, at the Belle Glade High School Auditorium.

Cong. Rogers Seeks 1000-Bed Hospital For Florida G's

Congressman Paul G. Rogers introduced in the House of Representatives today a bill for the purpose of the construction of a one thousand bed Veterans' administration hospital within the State of Florida. The provisions of this bill call for the hospital to provide for general medical and surgical facilities with four hundred of the beds to be specifically for neuropsychiatric patients.

Congressman Rogers stated that there is a pressing and urgent need for early enactment of this legislation to provide facilities within the State of Florida which are not now there. The rapid increase in population in the State of Florida in the need for additional hospital facilities.

Congressman Rogers stated that on the basis of the most recent surveys available that there are permanently living in the State of Florida 448,000 Veterans and over 70,000 of these Veterans are receiving some compensation for service-connected disability. This does not take into consideration heavy seasonal increase which has been estimated, by the Director of Veterans' Affairs in the State of Florida, to be 33 1/2% during the winter months.

The increase in the past ten years of hospitalization in Florida has been from 250,000 in 1946 to the present figure of 448,000. During the past ten years the hospital facilities for Veterans' hospitalization has remained the same. There are presently three Veterans' hospitals in Florida providing 1,350 beds and there is a substantial number of patients needing immediate hospitalization who are on waiting lists and cannot be admitted because of inadequate facilities.

Congressman Rogers further stated the neuropsychiatric patients have available to them 118 beds in the existing facilities of Veterans' hospitals in Florida and there are actually, according to information published by the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs in February 1955, Veterans who are badly in need of psychiatric attention and are awaiting commitment to hospital beds.

Congressman Rogers stated that he was pressing for early consideration of legislation which he has introduced today and feels that early legislation on this measure will be held by the Committee on Veterans' Affairs in the House of Representatives.

Fla. Increases Federal Income Tax Payments

Tax collections in Florida by the federal government amounted to $981,307,000 during the 1955-56 fiscal year.

This total was a jump of $153 million over the previous year, the greatest increase since the 1940's. The Florida gain was 21 per cent as compared with a national increase of 13 per cent.

In addition to the collected sum above, Floridians paid an estimated $200 million in "hidden" taxes, those collected in other states and passed on to consumers in the prices of goods purchased. Thus the total payments of federal internal revenue by Floridians passed the billion dollar mark for the first time.

Individual income taxes, totaling $427,638,000, are reported in this week's business review of the State Chamber's research and industrial division as making up 17 per cent of the federal collections in the state. This amount was 20 per cent in 1955, compared with 13 per cent nationally. Per capita, Floridians paid $167 each directly in income taxes, as compared with $145 in the eastern states but about two-thirds the national average.

Florida's corporations paid $171,625,000 in income and profits taxes, up 25 per cent as compared with a national increase of 17 per cent. Employment taxes amounted to $5,612,000, about the same as in 1955. All other types of federal revenue collected in Florida amounted to $88,428,000 during the fiscal year 1955, a 23 per cent jump over 1954. In this category are all excise taxes on luxury items, taxes levied on the manufacture of tobacco products and beverages and gift taxes.

The robot policeman has been hailed across the country as the cheapest, most efficient defense against the onslaught of cars that is snarling traffic in almost every city. Installed for $10,000 in White Plains, N. Y., the almost human device saved $2,000,000 earmarked for a single underpass at a congested traffic circle. He has also helped ease traffic conditions in Detroit, Louisville, Denver and Omaha.

According to advance information, the robot, armed with volume-density controls, reacts automatically to the flow of traffic at intersections, eliminating snarls and delays. He acts on electronic information received from automobile treadles located at intersection approaches.

Barker's appearance and demonstration will be a highlight of the two-day program, which will feature top specialists in planning and traffic engineering and government administration. The meeting is aimed at finding a solution to a threatened traffic jam in the city.

Registration information may be obtained by contacting W. Y. Young, head, department of community service and economic development, General Extension Division of Florida, University of Florida, Gainesville.

Station's Calf Studies Important To Cattlemen

"The Everglades Experiment Station's 25 years of breeding work with records of crosses is a most valuable reference work for cattlemen everywhere," Ralph Kidder told Rotarians Friday, "and some most interesting facts have been emphasized in the study of these records."

"Progeny testing with purebred and var.ious crosses have given us some most interesting comparisons," Mr. Kidder continued. It has been found that of two breeds of pure stock Devon and Brahman, the average weight of 180-day-old calves of the two pure breeds was 331; the crosses averaged 385 pounds, while the pure-bred and cross-bred would give a calf of an average of 385 pounds at 180-day age, while the two crosses gave a calf averaging only 361 pounds.

At age of twenty-four months the same animals maintained about the same ratio except that the pure-bred to the cross showed a better gain. The figures for the two year old animals are 689, 816, 801 and 701 for the respective breeding procedure above.

In recent tests with the Angus breed, the two purebreds averaged 312 pounds at 180 days, while the first cross averaged 348, and the pure bred and the first cross gave a 410 pound calf.

The records prove that ability to produce good calves is an inherited trait, and that August and September calves were less than February and March calves.

One cattleman who has never before "gone for" a calf raising operation is running 3900 cows for breeding purposes and expects a 90% plus calf crop to result.

"You-Are-There" Show Goes Into Ninth Week

Settling down to enjoy its exclusive Florida long-run engagement at the Roosevelt Theatre (Miami Beach) is "This Is Cinema," the Lowell Thomas Merian C. Cooper presentation which entered its ninth week on Wednesday evening (January, 30).

Following the pattern of Cinerama's 19 other theatres throughout the country (Miami Beach is only the 20th city to date to offer the revolutionary "you-are-there" film, and the sole location in the State of Florida), the Roosevelt Theatre management recently inaugurated a policy of special Saturday morning shows designed to cater to youngsters throughout Dade County and, eventually, throughout all of Florida.

On January 12, a scant five and one-half weeks after Cinerama's Florida premiere (which took place last December 5), the theatre held its first Youth Matinee in honor of the Girl Scout Show took place Saturday morning, January 12; the second, January 19; and the third, January 26.

All set to attend future special Saturday morning Cinerama performances are South Florida's Boy Scouts of America, as well as the entire roster of Dade County school children. Because Cinerama cannot and will not be shown at any other theatre in Florida except at the Roosevelt, the management hopes eventually to arrange for children from Broward and Palm Beach Counties to see the exciting new multi-dimensional film at a series of special Saturday Youth Matinees designed especially for them.

The American Dental Association says one reason why the United States is short of dentists is the lack of dental schools. Only 26 states and the District of Columbia have accredited dental colleges.

"fellow citizens..."

The tall, soldierly figure, dressed in a "suit of brown broadcloth spun at Hartford" to kiss the bible before Samuel Otis could raise it to his lips. The New York Battery crashed out a thirteen gun salute, the church bells of the city rang in triumph and from the windows of people who crowded the streets and rooftops as far as the eye could see came the joyous cry, "Long live George Washington."

America had just inaugurated, as her first President, her most beloved hero. So great was the people's affection for this calm Virginian that there was talk of proclaiming him king. And the majority of the Senate favored calling on him the title of "His Highness, President of the United States of America and Protector of Their Liberties."

Yet Washington began his inaugural address with these words, "Fellow citizens..." thus giving himself the only title he wanted.

"Today we can best honor George Washington by letting those words remind us not only of his humility but of our responsibility to the legacy he left us."
